CHARLES GUICHARD

Fatal Accident - Saturday afternoon an unfortunate accident occurred to Charles Guichard, resulting in his death about six hours afterwards. He was in the act of upsetting an oyster boat on the beach of Pascagoula Bay when a plank struck him on the top of his head inflicting an ugly fracture of the skull, rendering him unconscious, and in which condition he remained until he died. He was given the best of medical attention without avail.

Deceased bore an excellent reputation, was industrious and well thought of in the community. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his untimely and sad demise. His funeral took place Sunday evening. Interment was made in the Pascagoula Catholic Cemetery, Rev. Father W. Ten Brink officiating.

Pendarvis Family Reunion
built boats on How Island for lighthouse

Joseph Pendarvis of Cornwall, England immigrated to Charleston South Carolina with the first fleet in 1671. He rose to a position of great civic prominence and wealth on the Ashley River within ten years of his arrival as an indentured servant.

Over the next 100 years Pendarvis' descendants continued to acquire vast estates in the South Carolina Low Country.

With the United States' acquisitions of the Mississippi and Louisiana Territories after 1800 members of the Pendarvis Family migrated to Pike County Mississippi and from there spread to North Central and the Florida Parishes of Louisiana.

Over the past 300 years the Pendarvis Family overcame many obstacles to survive and make their mark on the history of our country and now inhabit almost every state in the Union.

Family names descended from the Pendarvis of South Louisiana include Lockhart, White, Hartman, Vickers, Reynolds, Stilley, Starnes, Cutrer, Bankston, Vinyard and Ott while North Louisiana families include the names, Miles, Haddox, Wright, Fowler, Gibson, Maxwell, Rice, Lusk and Long.

All descendants are invited to attend a reunion celebrating the history of the Pendarvis Family to be held on Saturday November 2, 1996. Further information can be obtained by contacting Glenn Reid Lee, P.O. Box 221, Maurepas, La. 70449, 504-695-3865, Kenny Pendarvis 504-664-4363, or Pat Pendarvis 504-294-2292.

The State of Mississippi

In the Chancery
Court, March Term
A.D. 1879

To the Honorable George Wood, Chancellor of the 4th Chancery Court District of the State of Mississippi.

The humble petition of Florence Guichard, widow of Maurice Guichard, who departed this life on the 5th day of May, 1877, at East Pascagoula, on the Sea Shore, in the said County and State; and Sophia Guichard, a minor about twelve years old,
Maurice Guichard, a minor about Ten years old, Charles Guichard, a minor about eight years old, and William Paul Guichard, a minor about six years old,
Children, and legal heirs of the said Maurice Guichard, deceased, by their next friends - their mother - Florence Guichard, Respectfully state unto your Honor - that the said Maurice Guichard, the husband of one, and the father of the other petitioners, departed this life, intestate.
Petitioners further state that Stephen Moore, obtained, from this honorable Court, on the 5th day of November 1877, Letters of Administration, on the Estate of the said Maurice Guichard; Six months having elapsed, after the death of the deceased, before the granting of the said letters.

Petitioners further represent that the said Maurice Guichard, at his death left a small estate, consisting of personal property, (household goods, principally,) and of real estate, ^{to wit,} a mansion house, in the said Village of East Pascagoula, on the Sea Shore, ^{located} on a certain block, or parcel of ground, measuring on "front Street", on the Sea Shore, 366 feet, more or less; ^{boundary} on the West by Mrs. Clark's lot, which ^{lot} is bounded on the West by "Market Street"; on the North by Washington Street; and ^{also} other lots and parcels of ground, lying and being situated North of "Washington Street", and East of "Market Street"; but a more particular and definite description of said lots, and pieces of ground, petitioners are not prepared to give, for want of a plot, and title deeds to said land - ~~in and to all of which~~ ^{lots and parcels of ground, said widow is entitled to share.}
Petitioners further state that upon their homestead lot, there are several (two or three) small buildings, besides their separate residence building - that said lot and houses have been used, ^{and are intended} as a hotel and boarding house; all of which, said building, located upon which ^{said} block,

are necessary and indispensable additions, and attachments to said block of ground, as a residence, ^{boarding house,} and hotel lot; of ground, for purposes of dining room, kitchen, servants' apartment, sleeping, and family

... building, located upon which ^{Block} Block,

are necessary and indispensable additions, and attachments to said block of ground, as a residence, ^{boarding house,} and hotel lot, ^{of ground,} for purposes of dining room, kitchen, servants' apartment, sleeping, and family apartments, ~~in the way of tenements~~; and for front and rear area, garden, stock lots, fruit trees, and wood yard; all of which are necessary attachments to the hotel and boarding-house lot of ground. Petitioners further state that when the said Maurice Guichard departed this life, he was a citizen of the State of Mississippi, - was a householder ^{in the said village of East Pascagoula,} and had a family, and was entitled to hold exempt from seizure or sale, "the land and buildings, owned and occupied as a residence, not to exceed in value two thousand dollars; and personal property to the value of "Two hundred and fifty dollars".

Petitioners further state that on the death of the said Guichard, this property, both real and personal, descended to his widow and children, as tenants in common; to wit, the said Florence Guichard, as widow, and the said Sophia, Maurice, Charles, and William, as children of the said Maurice Guichard.

Petitioners further State that they were entitled, on the death, and out of the estate of the deceased one year's provisions, or an allowance of money to purchase provisions; and also a sum of money sufficient to purchase necessary wearing apparel, ^{for complainants,} and to pay tuition for said Children, for one year after the death of the deceased.

Petitioners further State that the Commissioners appointed for that purpose by this Honorable Court, have Reported an allowance of two hundred and fifty dollars, only, for one year's provisions for said widow and Children; and nothing, or no sum of money to purchase necessary wearing apparel for petitioners, nor any amount of money to pay tuition of said Children, for one year, as they were, by law, required to do.

Petitioners further State that their husbands and father, departed this life, leaving them without provisions, with a very scanty supply of clothing, and no money to buy necessary provisions and clothing, nor to pay tuition of the said minor Children - that Petitioners have been, ever since the death of the deceased, and are now, in destitution and want - in want of provisions - in want of wearing apparel, and in want of money to pay tuition of said minor Children, who are growing up without education; notwithstanding the deceased left property - real estate - which deceased, and are now, in destitution and want - in want of provisions - in want of wearing apparel, and in want of money to pay tuition of said minor children, who are growing up without education; notwithstanding the deceased left property - real estate - which might have been, long since, converted into money, and the destitution and temporary necessities of Petitioners much relieved. Petitioners further state that the whole of the said Block of ground, in possession of, and occupied by them as a homestead, with all the tenements and improvements thereon, is not worth the sum of two thousand dollars, as your petitioners are advised, and as they believe.

Your Petitioners therefore most humbly pray your honor that, by a decree of this honorable Court, the said lot, or block of ground which the deceased occupied as a residence at the time of his death, and which petitioners still hold and occupy as a homestead, to wit; a certain lot, or Block of ground, in the said Village of East Pascagoula, fronting the Sea Shore, and by measurement from West to East, three hundred and Sixty Six feet, more or less, lying East of Market Street, and running back, and north,

to Washington Street, be established and set apart as exempt property to Petitioners, and as a homestead, and that said widow's dower may be set apart according to Law. — That it may be referred to a Master of this Court, to State, what amount of money should be appropriated out of the estate of the deceased to the clothing and education of Petitioners, and that your honor will refer back the Report of the Commissioners appointed by your Honor, at a former term of this Court, with a mandatory Order, that they report to the Court, without further unnecessary delay, the stated amount of money for the purposes aforesaid, ^{or otherwise as your honor may direct,} — and that your Honor will restrain the said Stephen Moore, administrator, as aforesaid, from any and all further disposition of the property of said estate, real and personal, until, ^{widow's dower,} ~~until~~ said ^{exemptions,} and allow-this honorable Court — that said Stephen Moore be made a party defendant to this Petition — that a Subpoena may such further or other order, or

EPISCOPAL ENTERTAINMENT.

Great Social and Financial Success.

On Tuesday night the Ladies Guild of St. John's mission of the Episcopal church gave a delightful entertainment at Odd Fellows' Opera House. The many little tables bearing refreshments were presided over by dainty maidens adorned with white caps and aprons. The fancy goods tables were in charge of the matrons. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The program announced by Hon. D. D. Cowan was opened by an overture exquisitely rendered by Dr. B. F. Duke and Mr. W. L. Kinne on the violin, accompanied by Miss Theodosia Thompson on the piano.

Mrs. Geo. W. O'Neill recited in her usual charming manner. The songs by Miss Bessie Fox and Mrs. E. R. du Mont delighted the audience, both being prime favorites. The duet by Mr. Harry Northup and Miss Jennie Northup received great applause.

A gypsy tent occupied by Mrs. R. A. Farnsworth in the role of a fortune teller was one of the attractions and afforded much merriment.

Altogether it was one of the most brilliant and high-class entertainments ever given in our town, and the ladies of the Guild deserves the highest praise. They realized $150 towards their church fund. Dancing followed the closing of the musical part.

AN ALMOST FATAL POISONING.

A Party of Three Persons Nearly Victimized by Some Poisonous Elixir Dropped into a Bottle of Absinthe.
—James Pope, Colored, Accused of the Act.

On last Sunday evening Jos. Sparanburg, George Miller and Mme. Guichard were engaged in a free and social reunion, and had upon the occasion a bottle of absinthe, of which they indulged in rather freely. It appears they left the room, leaving the bottle sitting upon a table, and returning in a short while each took another drink.
They all observed, however, the bitter and peculiar taste which attended this last drinking of the liquor, and it was but a short while before the entire party were seized with the most violent pains and cramps, making it at once apparent that they had been dosed with some poisonous drug. Dr. Moore being sent for at once immediately repaired to the scene, and by the aid of proper restoratives succeeded in saving the entire party from what would have been death.
The doctor states that had enough of the poisonous matter been dropped into the bottle death to the entire party would have been the inevitable result.
James Pope, a mulatto, who was seen entering the room during the absence of the party, and whose whereabouts cannot be ascertained since the occurrence, is accused of this malicious act.

Mobile Register, March 11th. 3-16-1900

A quiet home wedding was consummated on the fifth instant at the residence of Mr. Felix Andry, the foster parent of the bride, southwest corner of Wilkinson and St. Louis streets, the contracting parties being Paul Guichard and Miss Eugenia Matthews. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Gardiner C. Tucker, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, at 12 o'clock, noon. The bride was becomingly attired in a pretty travelling suit and the groom wore the convention costume for such occasions. A delicious wedding dinner was spread and partaken of by the happy couple and members of the family. The bride and groom were warmly congratulated, and, after the enjoyable repast, they took their departure for Pascagoula, Miss., their future home.

A Disposition of Ballast.

ON WHICH SIDE OF THE CANAL.

It will be remembered that two weeks ago, the STAR proposed that the Stone ballast which was brought into our bay by vessels, and which had to be gotten rid of, should be put where it "would do the most good". And it was thought it could be used so as to become of great benefit to our canal; of course, we based our hypothesis upon, such information as we could gather from other, in regard to the tides &c. and not from actual observation; and in this respect Lieut.
Quinn has the advantage of us. We were told that strong tidal currents existed in the direction of the longer axis of the sound, which flowing from the east over deep water and ebbing from the west over shallow water, bore sand into the canal.

Lieut. Quinn states that no such tidal currents were observed, and that the currents in this direction are alone due to the winds.

We sent our article to Maj. Howell, and lay before our readers the following response, and trust that this Enquiry will lead to good results and to a permanent benefit to our canal.

U. S. ENGINEER OFFICE,

Gen. Melancthon Smith, Ed. Pascagoula Star:

PASCAGOULA, MISS

Dear Sir:—Your letter of the 9th inst, to Maj.
Howell, has been handed to me for my remarks upon the project for the improvement of the Canal at the mouth of the Pascagoula river proposed in the Star of 9th inst.

There is certainly no serious objections to depositing the ballast in the position recommended, since during the prevalence of strong west winds, some sand would undoubtedly be carried into the the channel, the deposits in the canal are however mainly due, to the interference of the River current during ebbing tide, and the currents produced by the winds.

No tidal currents were observed which pos-

The subject as the heading of this article indicates, is one of the greatest importance to all the people of the State. Our contemporary, the Jackson Evening News, submitted an editorial a few days since, which we, with pleasure, transfer to our columns of this issue, and bespeak for it a careful perusal by our readers.

If country roads cannot be pulled out of the old legislative ruts, we can at least, extend encouragement to the efficiency and success of railroads, for upon these every other business enterprise depends. One important truth is now universally realized, that is, a State without sufficient railroad facilities is liable to be lost out of the procession. The News says:

"The News has observed the general desire expressed by its esteemed contemporaries of the State for good country roads, as a movement that deserves encouragement and commendation."

It must be understood, however, that it is a proposed improvement that will require time, radical changes of existing laws, and indeed an entire new scheme.

It is difficult to repeal old statutes with which the people are familiar, and adopt new, especially if the change requires a large outlay of money. We concur in the move, but it will necessarily drag its way slowly for some time to come.

The News would urge earnest efforts and encouragement to the building of the several lines of projected railroads, so much needed in the counties through which they would run. Some of these lines have been surveyed and others will be in the near future. The promoters of the road from this city to Columbus, have met and organized and are hopeful of success. The smart and live little city of West Point that always accomplishes what it undertakes, proposes a line from that city to Oxford, and perhaps a more distant terminus.

The city of Water Valley is solicitous for the building of a railroad from there to Memphis or some other favorable point. The contemplated road from the city of Natchez through Franklin and adjacent counties is receiving substantial encouragement from the people along its line.

The enterprising city of Vicksburg has indicated that a road should and must be built from that important distributing point through Madison, Leake, Winston and other counties to Macon in Noxubee, or other suitable terminus. So the outlook is for more railways and additional facilities for travel, transportation of freight, etc.

For these objects we are at all times ready to render any aid in our power, but in soliciting this great outlay of capital, most of which must come from elsewhere, public sentiment should correct evils that have crept in to experimental litigation against railroads that are being operated. In suits, often without merit, juries are sought to be influenced by arousing their prejudices against corporations.

As heretofore stated by the News

DIED.

She was sick but a few days and passed away peacefully and without pain. Mrs. Mixon joined the Methodist church when quite young, and was a faithful and earnest christian. She was born and reared in Jackson county, lived here all her life, and was buried at the family cemetery at her old home, where she was born, Rev. G. D. Alexander officiated at the grave.

Mrs. Mixon leaves three daughters and two sons, all honored members of this community, to mourn her loss.

Drowned. Jim Jack, a colored hand in the O'Leary (Penny & Co.'s) mill at Moss Point, was bathing in the river near the mill on Saturday morning and getting beyond his depth was drowned in a few feet of the shore. As soon as he was missed, the place was dragged and the body found in about fifteen feet water. An inquest held, found according to the above facts.

Mr. Chanterant has several beautiful cottages on the Sea Side, opposite the long wharf, which he advertises for rent. It is Mr. Chanterant's delight to fix up these places and keep them in tip-top order, and they look as nice as a row of new pins and families desiring to procure pleasant, comfortable dwellings, immediately on the beach, will be certainly charmed with them.

GLASS FACTORY ON HORN ISLAND. There was a person here this week collecting signatures to a petition to the Government, praying that it sell Horn Island to a New Orleans party, who propose to erect thereon a Glass Factory. We did not see the petition, and know nothing of the parties moving in this matter. But it may be a showman's agia, and the purchase from the Government is truly desired for the purpose assigned, we heartily wish them good speed and success as we do all parties in such undertakings. Horn Island is noted for its fine quality of sand, which is considered by far the best on the Sound, and it is this fact which has doubtless induced this project.

Although we, ourself, belong to the sect of the "Peripatetics," inasmuch as we are obliged to walk and cannot afford to ride, still we think we have more of the true philosopher in our composition than our correspondent, who seems to be nettled and chagrined that he is forced to belong to the Sect. True philosophy teaches to be contented with one's lot and to be grateful for such things as we have. And if he be forced to Aristotelic usage, he should not complain, or so harshly, and we must say, we believe unjustly, judge his neighbors.

granddaughter of Mrs. Routh, 18 years old, was bitten by a ground snake on Tuesday at the sea-shore and attended to by Dr. Lambert. She is doing very well and the Doctor says there will result no serious consequences.

around" the implied fact of Dr. Livingstone writing on a prominent occurrence which took place six months after his death.

In the Herald's supposed letter from-Livingstone in Africa to Stanley in New York but not dated, the explorer invokes blessings on the donors who inaugurated Soup Kitchen charities in that city during last winter—December & January. The Herald certifies, and the arrival of the corpse in England confirms, the death of Livingstone to have occurred on 3d May 1873—one year since.

Perhaps it was a spiritual Communication; if not I would remark as the showman did to a querist at the exhibition of a painting of Daniel in the Lion's den—which is "Daniel and which the Lion?" Either you please my boy you pays your money, and you takes your choice."—Fire la Hamburg. T.

PACTEAU HOTEL.—We take pleasure in calling attention to the Card of Mr. Pacteau, who has leased the Hall Place and will open a new hotel next Monday. Certainly Mr. Pacteau is fortunate in obtaining such and elegant place to keep a hotel at, for in beauty of situation and elegance of surroundings it cannot be surpassed, and as Mr. Pacteau is a famous restaurateur of Mobile and knows how to attend to, and restore, the inner man, we have no doubt but that the Pacteau Hotel will prove a success, and will be the means of inducing many a Mobilian to spend the summer with us. We would be glad to learn what our other public entertainers are doing towards carrying on the Summer campaign.

A Disposition of Ballast.

ON WHICH SIDE OF THE CANAL.

It will be remembered that two weeks ago, the Star proposed that the Stone ballast which was brought into our bay by vessels, and which had to be gotten rid of, should be put where it "would do the most good". And it was thought it could be used so as to become of great benefit to our canal; of course, we based our hypothesis upon, such information as we could gather from others in regard to the tides &c. and not from actual observation; and in this respect Lieut. Quinn has the advantage of us. We were told that strong tidal currents existed in the direction of the longer axis of the sound, which flowing from the east over deep water and ebbing from the west over shallow water, bore sand into the canal.

Lieut. Quinn states that no such tidal currents were observed, and that the currents in this direction are alone due to the winds.
